

Ten Reasons to Join SSDP

1. Real Change
You will have the opportunity to be involved in a movement to create real policy reform.
2. Social Justice and Human Rights
The War On Drugs is a force multiplier for many forms of oppression with the negative effect of drug laws often being focused on those most marginalized. You can become a champion for justice and human rights.
3. Practical Harm Reduction
You will learn about safer partying and practical harm reduction tools for you and your friends.
4. Political Advocacy
You will learn a range of skills for engaging in effective political advocacy.
5. International Student Network
By joining SSDP you will become part of an international network of students working towards rational and compassionate drug policies.
6. Drug Policy on Campus
You can bring a student voice to your campus drug policies.
7. Understand Drug Policy
You can become an expert on drug policy, on your campus and around the country.
8. Understand Your Rights
You will learn what your rights are and how to safely assert them during a police encounter.
9. Empowerment
By learning these tools and enacting them you can become empowered, and empower others to advocate for the changes that are important to you.
10. Have Fun
Fighting for difficult policy change can be hard work, ssdp encourages harm reduction activism by making sure to have some fun too!

ssdpaustralia
STUDENTS FOR SENSIBLE DRUG POLICY

Ten Reasons to Join SSDP

1. Real Change
You will have the opportunity to be involved in a movement to create real policy reform.
2. Social Justice and Human Rights
The War On Drugs is a force multiplier for many forms of oppression with the negative effect of drug laws often being focused on those most marginalized. You can become a champion for justice and human rights.
3. Practical Harm Reduction
You will learn about safer partying and practical harm reduction tools for you and your friends.
4. Political Advocacy
You will learn a range of skills for engaging in effective political advocacy.
5. International Student Network
By joining SSDP you will become part of an international network of students working towards rational and compassionate drug policies.
6. Drug Policy on Campus
You can bring a student voice to your campus drug policies.
7. Understand Drug Policy
You can become an expert on drug policy, on your campus and around the country.
8. Understand Your Rights
You will learn what your rights are and how to safely assert them during a police encounter.
9. Empowerment
By learning these tools and enacting them you can become empowered, and empower others to advocate for the changes that are important to you.
10. Have Fun
Fighting for difficult policy change can be hard work, ssdp encourages harm reduction activism by making sure to have some fun too!

ssdpaustralia
STUDENTS FOR SENSIBLE DRUG POLICY

